“Social Media Tools for Genealogy”
Presented By: Gena Philibert-Ortega

Are you using social media for your genealogy? Whether it's FaceBook, Twitter, Pinterest, or any number of sites, social media can help you network, create content, and enhance your genealogical research. In this presentation, learn more about social media websites, how to protect your privacy, and how to use social media for your genealogy.

About the speaker: Gena Philibert-Ortega is an author, researcher, and instructor whose focus is genealogy, social and women's history. She holds a Master's degree in Interdisciplinary Studies (Psychology and Women's Studies) and a Master's degree in Religion. Her published works include two books, numerous articles published in magazines and online, two volumes of Tracing Female Ancestors (Moorshead Publishing), and a QuickGuide from Legacy Family Tree. She is the editor of the Utah Genealogical Association's magazine, Crossroads.

Mini Class 9:15-9:45 before the May Monthly Meeting – “Everything You Wanted to Know About Your Board of Directors’ Responsibilities But Were Afraid to Ask.” Come listen to Board members describe their roles in ensuring SOCCGS runs like a fine-tuned piano. Who knows, you might discover a place for yourself on the Board.

Meeting Place: 10 a.m. to 12 p.m., Mission Viejo LDS Church, 27976 Marguerite Parkway at Hillcrest Dr. Enter at the rear of the building.
